Index Volume 23 (1979)

Subjects

Acting-out, predicting, 35-6.
After-care
  Community Readjustment Program (Mercier Co., N.J.), 147-58; in England, 249-52.
Aggressive children, 47-56.
Alaska, offender rehabilitation project in, 172-7.
Alcoholism
  and drug dependence (int. congress), 268-9; and sex offences, 214-20.
Antisocial individuals and paranoid personality, difference, 24-34.
Australia, crime victim survey in, 129-34.

Basic education for offenders (England), 240-3.
Bedfordshire Probation and After-care Service, 240-3.
Befriending a depressed young man, 178-83.
Behavior modification program (Mercier Co., N.J.), 147-58.
Bereavement leading to murder, 57-64.
Berlinnie Prison (Glasgow), 23-4.
Black Southern immigrants, alienation of, 109-16.
Borderline patients, 29-30.
Britain, firearms and violence, 144-5.
Brooklyn House of Detention, 210-3.

Canada, firearms and violence, 138-9.
Canadian law and transvestism, 262-7.
Capital punishment, 15-6.
Catecholamine index, 257-61.
Child battering, 198-9.
Children
  aggressive, 47-56; and personality problems, 73-83.
CHINS (Child in Need of Services) Mass., 227-39.
Clinical prediction of dangerousness, 35-46.
Cognitive restructuring, 221-6.
Community readjustment program (Mercier Co., N.J.), 147-8.
Controls Units (Scotland), 23-4.
Correctional officers, difficulties facing, 159-63 & 235-9.
Criminal mentality, 25-34.
Criminal responsibility, 11-2.
Criminals (violent), rehabilitation of, 11-20.

Dangerousness, difficulties in predicting, 34-46.
Delinquent girls, deinstitutionalization of, 227-34.
Depression
  in prison, 168-9; and suicidal attempt, 178-83.
Detention, long term: the effects of, 210-3.
Detroit, firearms and violence in, 135-46.
Diagnosing
  of dangerousness (difficulties), 35-46; of paranoid prisoners, 25-34.
Dietary management of juvenile delinquents, 73-83.
Drug dependence and alcoholism (Int. Congress), 268-9.

Education
  basic—for offenders (England), 240-3; for retarded offenders (Iowa), 253-6.
England
  basic education for offenders, 240-3; intermediate treatment (juveniles), 244-48; through-care policy for offenders, 249-52.
Entelechial therapy, 221-26.

Firearms
  in Britain, 145; in Canada, 137-8; and homicide, 135-46; and suicide, 135-46; in Switzerland, 270.
Foster-care of delinquent girls, 227-34.

Girls
  delinquent —: deinstitutionalization of, 227-34.

Home violence, 203-4.
Homicide
  firearms and, 135-46.
Hormonal index of murderous propensity, 257-61.
Hyperactive youths, 73-83.

Institutional treatment of paranoid prisoners, 25-33.
Intermediate treatment of juveniles (England), 244-8.
Iowa State Men's Reformatory, 253-6.

Israel, prison service in, 184.

Index Volume 23 (1979)

Subjects

Acting-out, predicting, 35-6.
After-care
  Community Readjustment Program (Mercier Co., N.J.), 147-58; in England, 249-52.
Aggressive children, 47-56.
Alaska, offender rehabilitation project in, 172-7.
Alcoholism
  and drug dependence (int. congress), 268-9; and sex offences, 214-20.
Antisocial individuals and paranoid personality, difference, 24-34.
Australia, crime victim survey in, 129-34.

Basic education for offenders (England), 240-3.
Bedfordshire Probation and After-care Service, 240-3.
Befriending a depressed young man, 178-83.
Behavior modification program (Mercier Co., N.J.), 147-58.
Bereavement leading to murder, 57-64.
Berlinnie Prison (Glasgow), 23-4.
Black Southern immigrants, alienation of, 109-16.
Borderline patients, 29-30.
Britain, firearms and violence, 144-5.
Brooklyn House of Detention, 210-3.

Canada, firearms and violence, 138-9.
Canadian law and transvestism, 262-7.
Capital punishment, 15-6.
Catecholamine index, 257-61.
Child battering, 198-9.
Children
  aggressive, 47-56; and personality problems, 73-83.
CHINS (Child in Need of Services) Mass., 227-39.
Clinical prediction of dangerousness, 35-46.
Cognitive restructuring, 221-6.
Community readjustment program (Mercier Co., N.J.), 147-8.
Controls Units (Scotland), 23-4.
Correctional officers, difficulties facing, 159-63 & 235-9.
Criminal mentality, 25-34.
Criminal responsibility, 11-2.
Criminals (violent), rehabilitation of, 11-20.

Dangerousness, difficulties in predicting, 34-46.
Delinquent girls, deinstitutionalization of, 227-34.
Depression
  in prison, 168-9; and suicidal attempt, 178-83.
Detention, long term: the effects of, 210-3.
Detroit, firearms and violence in, 135-46.
Diagnosing
  of dangerousness (difficulties), 35-46; of paranoid prisoners, 25-34.
Dietary management of juvenile delinquents, 73-83.
Drug dependence and alcoholism (Int. Congress), 268-9.

Education
  basic—for offenders (England), 240-3; for retarded offenders (Iowa), 253-6.
England
  basic education for offenders, 240-3; intermediate treatment (juveniles), 244-48; through-care policy for offenders, 249-52.
Entelechial therapy, 221-26.

Firearms
  in Britain, 145; in Canada, 137-8; and homicide, 135-46; and suicide, 135-46; in Switzerland, 270.
Foster-care of delinquent girls, 227-34.

Girls
  delinquent —: deinstitutionalization of, 227-34.

Home violence, 203-4.
Homicide
  firearms and, 135-46.
Hormonal index of murderous propensity, 257-61.
Hyperactive youths, 73-83.

Institutional treatment of paranoid prisoners, 25-33.
Intermediate treatment of juveniles (England), 244-8.
Iowa State Men's Reformatory, 253-6.

Israel, prison service in, 184.

Juvenile murderers, 47-72.
Juvenile offenders
dietary management of, 73-83; intermediate treatment (England), 244-8; socialization of, 117-28.
Juveniles, violent, 199-201.

Lancaster School for Girls (Mass.), 227-34.
Lansdown Commission (South Africa), 99-108.
Literacy training for offenders (England), 240-3.
Long-term detention, the effects of, 210-3.
Lyman School (Mass.), 227-34.

Massachusetts,
Department of Youth Services, 227-39; probation in, 84-5.
Mental health of victims of crime, 129-34.
Mental hospitals, violence in, 21-4.
Mental imagery, 221-6.
Mother-daughter relationship, problems in, 231-4.
Murder, bereavement leading to, 57-64.
Murderous propensity, 257-61.

Negro immigrants, alienation of Southern, 109-16.

Oconalufte Job Corps Conservation Center, 109-16.
Offender rehabilitation project (Alaska), 172-7.

Paranoid prisoners, treatment of, 25-33.
Parents
expectation of — v. correctional officers, 235-9; handling, 178-83.
Penal reforms in South Africa, 99-108.
Philadelphia Walnut Street Jail, 12.
Placement, 227-34.
Prediction of dangerousness, difficulties, 35-46.
Premeditated murder (8- year old boy), 47-56.
Prison depression
in short-term facilities, 168-9.
Prisoners' families, helping, 249-52.
Prisons,
function of, 14; short-term —, problems in, 164-71; suicide in, 13-4; violence in, 21-4.
Prison service in Israel, 184.
Probation
intermediate treatment (England), 244-8; in Massachusetts, 84-5; shock — (Ohio), 85; through-care (England) 249-52.
Probation officers, role conflicts of, 159-63 & 235-9.
Psychopathy, 44.
Psychotherapy
with alcoholic sex offenders, 214-20; with child murderer, 47-56; entelechial —, 221-6; with paranoid prisoners, 25-34; with tranvestites, 262-7; with violent criminals, 206-9.

Rehabilitation project (Alaska), 172-7.
Retarded offenders, educational program for, 252-6.
Revenge, 202-3.

School bullying, 199-201.
Scotland, control units in, 21-4.
Sentencing, juvenile murderers, 62-4.
Sex offenders with alcoholism, treatment of, 214-20.
Shock probation (Ohio), 85.
Short-term prisons, problems in, 164-71.
Socialization, juvenile offenders, 117-28.
South Africa, penal reforms in, 99-108.
Street violence, 204-5.
Subculture (Negro), 109-116.
Suicide
and depression, 178-83; and firmarms, 135-46.
Switzerland, firearms in, 270.

Teenage violence, 197-9.
Transvestism, 262-7.

Urban ghettos, 109-16.

Victims of crime, mental health of, 129-34.
Viljoen Commission (South Africa), 99-108.
Violence
and firearms, 135-46; in mental hospitals and prisons, 21-4.
Violent criminals, rehabilitation of, 11-20.
Violent male felons, 205-6.

Authors and Titles

Arboleda-Florez, J.: Transvestism: A Case, 262-7.

Berger, L. S. & Dietrich, S. G.: The Clinical Prediction of Dangerousness: The Logic of the Process, 34-46.
Bernstein, J. I.: Premeditated Murder by an Eight-year-old Boy, 47-56.
Biles, D., Braithwaite, J. & Braithwaite, V.: The Mental Health of the Victims of Crime, 129-34.
Bloom, J. L. & Bloom, J. D.: Offender Counselling Service in a Public Defender Agency, 172-7.
Bowker, L. H.: The Warden, A Classical Case of the Double-Blind Dilemma, 159-63.
Braithwaite, J. — See Biles, D. & Braithwaite,
Braithwaite, V. — See Biles, D. & Braithwaite.
Brown, W. K. & Gable, R. J.: Social Adaptation of Former Delinquents, 117-28.
Burbidge, J.: Intermediate Treatment in England, 244-8.

Cholst, S.: The Effects of Long-term Detention, 210-3.

Dalglish, C.: Basic Education for Offenders, 240-3.
Danto, B. L.: Alternative Approaches to the Violent Criminal, 11-20; Firearms and Violence, 135-46.
Dietrich, S. G. — See Berger, S. L. & Dietrich, S. G.

Feingold, B. F.: Dietary Management of Juvenile Delinquency, 73-83.
Fiore, A.: The Treatment of Offenders Using Altered States, Mental Imagery and Cognitive Restructuring, 221-6.
Floyd, J.: The Community Readjustment Program, 147-58.
French, L.: Alienation of Black Southern Immigrants, 109-16.

Gable, R. J. — See Brown, W. K. & Gable, R. J.
Guberman, M.: "Child in Need of Services" in Massachusetts: Does the New System Work?, 235-9.

Haines, D. — See Nichols, G. L. & Haines, D.
Hinton, J. W., Woodman, D. D., O'Neil, M. T. & Webster, S.: Test Faking Relating to a Hormonal Index of Murderous Propensity, 257-61.
Hollingsworth, K. L.: A Through-Care Policy for Offenders Sentenced to Custody, 249-52.

Mann, D. A. — See Arboleda-Florez & Mann, D. A.
Midgley, J.: The Prospect of Penal Reform in South Africa, 99-108.

Nichols, F. L. & Haines, D.: The Difficulties of Dual Denial in the Treatment of Sex Offenders with Alcoholism, 214-20.

O'Neil, M. T. — See Hinton, J. W. et al, 257-61.

Peacock, C.: Towards Equal Services for Girls: The Massachusetts' Experiment, 227-34.
Pelka-Slugocka, M. D. & Slugocki, L.: Alcoholism and Drug Dependence: 32nd International Congress, 268-9.

Rockoff, E. C.: The Retarded Offender: Missing in Action, 253-6.
Russell, D. H.: Ingredients of Juvenile Murder, 65-72.

Schneider, M. A.: Problems in Short-term Correctional Settings, 164-71.
Scott, E. M.: Paranoid Prisoners, 25-33; Violence in America: Violent People and Violent Offenders, 197-209.
Slugocki, L. — See Pelka-Slugocka, M. D. & Slugocki, L., 268-9.

Washbrook, R. A. H.: Bereavement Leading to Murder, 57-64.
Webster, S. — See Hinton, J. W. et al, 257-61.
Whitehead, J. A.: Violence in Mental Hospitals and Prisons, 21-4.
Woodman, D. D. — See Hinton, J. W. et al, 257-61.